6. COMMUNITY SERVICES DIRECTOR REPORT

- a. Cindy Emerson explained the needs assessment process, creation of the Executive summary and updates per the Guidebook. Also shared info about the family survey; they asked the committee members to help with getting the survey out in their network of influences.
- b. Community Impact: Megan Kendrick shared information about recent Professional Development Workshop about grant writing & the feedback from the survey completed by the attendees; & Robert Catapano provided updates on the GIS Heat Map.
- c. Communication and Engagement: Golden Impact Award Update & feedback. Community events to collect surveys from families; requested committee members to provide the surveys to their network of families in the community; Social Media campaign updates presented by Robert Catapano and Mrs. Emerson.
- d. Fiscal Responsibility and Governance: update on Onboarding Workshop; drawdown report provided by Robert. Mrs. Kendrick reported that the Salvation Army sent a letter requesting to de-obligate the $10,000 awarded for this fiscal year due to lack of alignment with academic success as written in the grant; Paula Barclay & Carrie Lester had questions about the drawdown report. Mrs. Kendrick presented the Return On Investment and provided the major updates that have taken place within CSAC to see how the Needs Assessment helps the mission for return on investment. Hope Woodhouse stated there should be a way for agencies to provide how funding they are losing. Discussion surrounding the next meeting is a workshop to review and analyze the new data.
